Estilist Estilat

Charlene made the brave decision to leave her abusive and violent marriage. This was not an easy decision, but necessary for her to rebuild her life.
At the House, Charlene had the opportunity to focus on herself for the first time. She began new mental health treatment to process the trauma she had experienced and learned to understand her past while building skills to help her navigate her future. Charlene worked vigorously and maintained employment at several jobs while at The House which allowed her to regularly contribute to her savings and build a foundation for her future.
